

Estrogenius 2011 Character Breakdowns

WEEK 1

Goodbye Avis by Celeste Koehler

Miriam: Elderly woman, oldest and dearest friend of Avis Megettigan

Emma: Elderly woman, oldest and dearest friend of Avis Megettigan

Leonard: Son of Avis Megettigan

Tim Hennessey: Son of Hennessey, the funeral director

Glutton for Punishment by Catherine Noah

Wendy: a 40-something yogi, any race

Satan: any age, any gender or race

Escape to Wonderland by Patrick Gabridge

Jackie: 20's, on her way to the beach at Wonderland. On the quiet side.

Cassie: 20's, has a flair for the dramatic. At the end of a long, wild night.

Additional passengers (if you have some extra actors)

Voice of a train announcer (can be pre-recorded)

Dinner for Who by Gabrielle Sinclair

Jason: a man

Renie: a woman

Kyle: a waiter

Origin by Elizabeth Irwin

Micheal: a white man in his 30's, dressed professionally, a businessman

Amelia: his wife, a black woman in her thirties, dressed casually in clothes made to lounge in, a professor

WEEK 2

Spinal Alignment by Deborah Yaichun

Donovan: Male, 24

Shelia: Female, 23

My Beautiful Grandmother by Amina Henry

Shirley: an elderly woman in her 70's or 80's

Joe: a young man in his late 20's or early 30's

Status Update by Jamie Pachino

Liz: mid-20's, any race

Bobby: mid-20's, any race

Attendant by Carona Lewis

Penny: a female bathroom attendant

Tally: a woman in her twenties or thirties

Bill: a handsome up and coming film actor in his thirties or older

Me by Maia Akiva

Maia's Destiny: a combination between a corporate businesswoman and a spiritual woman

Maia: the writer

WEEK 3

Supernova By Gemma Irish

Ana: late 20s, at a moment of in-between-ness. Quiet but not shy. Still waters and all that. Ex-girlfriend of Dylan.

Dylan: 20s, perhaps younger than Ana. At least he acts like it. Named after Bob Dylan and Dylan Thomas. Not, himself, a poet. Charismatic. Ex-boyfriend of Ana, best friend to Lee.

Lee: Late 20s, a man who knows what he wants. Confident, but not overly so. Best friend to Lee, friendly with Ana.

Green Dating by Chantal Bilodeau

A High-School Teenage Girl

A High-School Teenage Boy

Bones of Home by Charlene A. Donaghy

Dillon: 15-years-old, African descent. He has a chip the size of the Super Dome on his shoulders but he has reasons. Life has not been kind for the past several years.

Miriam: 75-years-old, Irish descent. She has seen what is left of her life and does not feel it is what she wants. Life has not been kind for the past several months.

Tough Love by John C. Davenport

Tanya: 20s to 30s

Patti: 20s to 30s

Black Boys Don't Dance by Philana Omorotionmwan

Mary: a black woman in her late 30s

James: a black man in his mid 40s

WEEK 4

Caller, Are You There? By Kitty Dubin

Dr. Linda Messenger : a brash radio talk show psychologist, 40's – 50.

Paul and William: 2 callers, played by the same actor (30's).

Anne: 24 , a desperate caller

Beverly: Dr. Linda's screener. Unseen. We only hear her from the booth.

Live from Pod 305 by Ashley Marinaccio

Samantha Fahey: 40's, a former Yale professor, a prison inmate

Eze Martin: 20's, an anarchist, a prison inmate

Three Ring Platform by Kate Kertez

Rachel: mid-twenties-thirties, neurotic

Frank: mid-twenties-thirties, playful

Nephrology by Sora Ilysee Jacobson

Kate: Left kidney, female

Nate: Newly transplanted kidney, male

Selkie by C.S.E. Clooney

Dylan: a land-locked selkie who suffers dangerous hallucinations

Simon: her husband, a human

Meredith: one of Dylan's courtiers, come to fetch her back