PLEASE READ ALL GUIDELINES & INFORMATION THOROUGHLY.

REQUIREMENTS & GUIDELINES FOR SOLA VOCE SOLO SHOWS

- Submissions for Sola Voce are accepted by mail or in person between February 15 and April 15, 2010. No electronic submissions are accepted. Submissions must be postmarked by April 15, 2010.
- Submissions must be accompanied by a completed cover sheet. Submissions received without the cover sheet will not be considered.
- Submit a script and a DVD or VHS tape. If you do not have a DVD or VHS tape, then you may be asked to audition. Audition dates to be announced shortly.
- We are primarily looking for solo shows written and performed by women, but we do consider submissions by male writers that explore complex female characters and perspectives and are appropriate for a celebration of female voices. Please don't put a woman's name on your solo show. It WON'T help you.
- Approach your show like a playwright. Is it indeed complete? Are the stage directions, set and characters conceived and executed? Is there a story line, a plot, a journey from beginning to end? Is there tension, conflict, resolution?
- You may submit ONLY one show (so, pick your favorite!) If you submit more than one show, one will be chosen at random to be read, and the OTHERS WILL BE DISCARDED.
- There are no stipulations on content or subject matter. Material need not be women's issues-oriented. We're interested in all that women are writing about.
- Shows should be between 5 and 50 minutes long.

- If your show is chosen and runs between 5 and 30 minutes, it may be paired with another show to complete a 50-minute program.
- You must be willing to create a shorter version of your show. If your show is chosen and it runs over 50 minutes, you must make cuts. NO EXCEPTIONS.
- All solo shows should require only simple production values (sets, lights and costumes). manhattantheatresource has an elegant, intimate theatre. Storage and wing space is extremely limited. If it can't be done with our unit set and some imagination, then please don't submit it!
- Should your show be selected, you will be asked to provide bios, photos and blurbs for the web site and other promotional materials. Let us know how you plan to market your show, the graphics for your postcard/flyers and the blurb you plan to use.
- Due to recent experience, it is wise to remind you to please respect the audience. Please do not attack the audience in any way during your show, throw things at them, spray them with water, etc.
- A SAS Post Card should be included if you want acknowledgment of arrival.

NO ELECTRONIC SUBMISSIONS PLEASE!
